

Sgt. Miguel Fonseca, an AH-64 Apache Longbow attack helicopter repairer assigned to the 12th Combat Aviation Brigade, helps a military child explore the inside of a helicopter during a Month of the Military Child event hosted by Child Youth Services at U.S. Army Garrison Ansbach, Germany, on 27 April 2023. April is the Month of the Military Child, which recognizes and honors military children and their role in the Armed Forces community. (Photo by Staff. Sgt. Preston B. Malizia, U.S. Army)

A Military Child's Lament

Don't ask me where I'm from, 🤔
It's not just one place under the sun.
My dad's in the Army; we're always on the go, 🪖
And where we'll land next, I never quite know.

We're packing again this summer,
And yeah, it's a bummer. 😞
I've made so many friends over the years,
And saying goodbye just brings me to tears. 😭

—Helena Griffiths, age 11