English archers and knights led by King Henry V face the French Army at the Battle of Agincourt on St. Crispin's Day, 25 October 1415.

“We few, we happy few, we band of brothers.
For he today that sheds his blood with me
Shall be my brother; be he ne'er so vile,
This day shall gentle his condition.
And gentlemen in England now abed
Shall think themselves accursed they were not here,
And hold their manhoods cheap whiles any speaks
That fought with us upon St. Crispin's Day.”

William Shakespeare
Henry V
Act IV, Scene 3, Lines 60-67
